RESOLUTIONS OF RESPECT.

In Memory of H. L. Vaughn, a Norfolk and Western Conductor.

H. L. Vaughn, a freight conductor of the Radford division of the Norfolk and Western railroad, departed this life March 29, 1895, at No. 731 First avenue, Roanoke, Va., from a pulmonary trouble. His remains were taken to East Radford for interment in the cemetery, where some of his relatives had gone before. He was a member of the Order of Railway Conductors, and his remains were taken charge of by the order and interred according to their rites and ceremonies. The funeral was preached by Rev. Mr. Harris, with prayer by Rev. Mr. Kyles and Rev. Mr. Lily, at the East Radford Baptist Church. The ceremony in whole was very solemn and impressive. After the interment there was a meeting of the members of the order at the residence of Sergeant J. M. Fisher, and the following resolutions were adopted:

Resolved, That we deeply sympathize with his family and relatives who alone can feel that crushing grief of the broken ties of the near and dear, and that as a token of our respect for our deceased brother we drape our charter and altar, and the members wear the usual badge of mourning for a period of thirty days, and that a copy of the above resolutions be presented to the bereaved family and that the same be published in the ROANOKE TIMES and Radford News.

"We take pleasure in recommending Chamberlain's Cough Remedy because it is praised by all who try it," says J. W. Cox & Son, druggists, Marshfield, Oregon. No one afflicted with a throat or lung trouble can use this remedy without praising it. It always gives prompt relief. It is especially valuable for colds, as it relieves the lungs, makes breathing easier and aids expectoration. A cold will never result in pneumonia when this remedy is taken and reasonable care exercised. For sale by the Chas. Lyle Drug Company.

It contains the faces of a father and three daughters; you see the father, where are the daughters? If your eyes are bright enough to find all three you are entitled to a reward.

The proprietors of the National Seed Store will give FREE seven beautiful pictures (Gems for decorating a home) as a reward to any one who can make out the three daughters' faces.

These pictures were superbly executed in colors by a firm of art publishers who were obliged to liquidate their business, their productions being too expensive for these hard times.

The entire stock was purchased by us and what originally cost thousands of dollars will now be given away to attract attention to our NATIONAL COLLECTION OF FLOWER SEEDS, for the season of 1895. The published price of these pictures was $1.00, but we will send them (a selected series of seven) as a reward to every person finding and marking the three daughters' faces with an X and enclosing same with sixteen two-cent stamps for NATIONAL COLLECTION No. 1, containing an immense variety of the choicest and most beautiful flower seeds. If you purchase your seeds from us one season we will always have your orders. We guarantee perfect satisfaction or money refunded. $400 IN CASH PREMIUMS. The person sending as above whose envelope bears the earliest postmark will be given a $300 upright piano; to the second, $25 in cash; to the third $20, to the fourth $15, fifth $10; to the next seven will be given $5 in gold. If able to find the three faces you should answer promptly, and enclose at once with 16 2c. stamps and you will receive the valuable lot of pictures and seeds by return mail. Address, NATIONAL SEED CO., Washington, D. C. P. O. Drawer 318.
